Painting News for Members of Palomar Heritage Painters

Vol 35, Issue 1, January 2018

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy New Year!

As we welcome in the new year, I would like to reflect on what a great year 2017 was. As a newbie to my position, what a great support team I had. The board and committee chairs did a remarkable job of keeping me focused and our chapter moving forward. I am so impressed with the level of commitment our members have committed to providing a fun and rewarding painting experience.

With the new year, ahead of us, I want to express a heartfelt thanks to Debi Stivers and Carol Voyles for volunteering to chair Programs for next year. What a relief! And a special thanks to Renee and Kenna for a job well done and an incredibly organized transition. This made the job so much more manageable for our new V.P.'s of Programs.

But there are still jobs to be filled if anyone wants to help even in a small way. I need someone to plan the Christmas Party for 2018, and anyone who may like to take a month for raffles. Even though our chapter has money, our funds will seriously dwindle without a few raffles during the year.

And, a special thanks to Ramona for the wonderful Christmas party. So many positive comments that day and over the next few. It is nice to just enjoy each other outside of a painting day.

This year I look forward to the varied and challenging projects for 2018, beginning with Karen's class. Remember, chapter provides the paint. Please plan to arrive aby 8:45 to set up your pallet, I want Karen to have a full day for this beautiful piece.

Finally, as we move forward this year, stay safe, stay healthy (wash your hands, those grandkids carry germs), don't take life too seriously and above all, paint!

Linda

Garage Sale Table

The table will be loaded with pieces just recently donated to us. Be sure to peruse the latest items given to us from a painting friend.. After lunch,the table will switch to a "free table." Lots of things you might be able to use somewhere.

Also "Sue's" table will be up and running. We should have many started projects that you can complete with the instructions.

See you Saturday, the 13th "at the table."

January's Lunch Info

Because most of us are still recovering from the holidays, Chapter will be providing lunch. Tentatively , I'm thinking about Jersey Mike's sandwiches, chips, salads and dessert. That should be enough good food to get us through our afternoon of painting. Coffee will be brewing..... Please bring your choice of cold drinks for the day.

Interactive Artists Magazine is Closing Down!

Many of you may have received a notice that the Interactive Artists Magazine will not be available after February 1, 2018 (unless a buyer comes forward). This is an online subscription magazine that has offered downloadable e-painting packets, videos, and interesting articles for decorative painters since the middle of 2011. For current subscription holders, the magazine is opening its entire archive of patterns & instructions (2011-2017) for download UNTIL FEBRUARY 1, 2018 — even if you haven't subscribed the entire time. (I haven't figured out how to download the videos, though. Maybe they will be available on the artists'websites–Ed.)

Also, if you subscribe to other e-magazines, try to download the magazine to your computer as soon as you get the e-mail that a new issue is available. One site, Online Painting Magazine, just cut off access to all 2017 materials on December 31 — even if you had a 2017 subscription. Look for an article on painting e-zines and online class sites in a future issues of this newsletter!
