

The Heritage Heartbeat

Painting News for Members of Palomar Heritage Painters

Vol 37, Issue 4, April 2020

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I hope this newsletter finds you all safe and first of all - in good health for you and your family. We started March with changing our clocks ahead to daylight savings time and we haven't been the same since. I have learned something about a human need this month that I didn't know about: No. 1 needed item in a pandemic over food, water or medicine is toilet paper. If there is a line in front of the store even in the rain-they have it, and if there is no line-they don't. Who knew this?

Early in March prior to our total lockdown we had a Board meeting to discuss chapter business and committee updates (minutes included in this newsletter). The meeting was held the day after the MPI committee had just made the difficult decision to postpone one of our chapters biggest events. The organizers went back and forth all week, took in many opinions, checked health alerts (at that time) and then finally made the decision to reschedule it. With an event that takes a year in the planning-having to reschedule after every detail has been carefully thought out, it's sad to unravel the pieces you so carefully put together like a puzzle. Knowing what we know now-it was the right thing to do. Thank you, Charlotte and Ramona, and the MPI committee for all your efforts and giving our members health considerations your highest priority.

Our chapters current situation per the beginning of April is the following:

- ◇ March MPI was postponed and is being rescheduled to a new date in mid-summer.
- ◇ The Chapter meeting with the members scheduled for April is being moved to a future date.
- ◇ The April class with Cindy Smith is being rescheduled to a future date.

We are hoping there will be no more changes to our calendar and we will keep you informed either through the newsletter or Leslie's blast emails if any classes beyond April get affected.

Rescheduling of the classes and events is dependent on teacher and mobile home park availability. We may double up classes some months to catch up with our calendar or extend the calendar timeline. The program folks, Linda and Debi, will give you the latest details on the newly rescheduled dates. For those members signed up for those classes--financial arrangements will be made available to you either by class credit or refund if the new dates don't work for you.

In the meantime, members-do we not have the perfect skill sets and hobby to keep ourselves busy while staying at home? Yes! We should not be bored! Start working on those unfinished projects, organize your craft room or find a project to paint for donation to one of our future monthly raffles or for the Christmas party. Stay strong PHP members, sit tight, and most of all stay healthy. Also have a very joyous Easter, we have many things to be thankful for in this country.

Carol

NEWS from 1st Vice Presidents (Programs)

Well!!!!

Even though we are all experiencing a new (temporary) reality, programs info must go on. At this time, we are on hold for all classes. The community room is locked until the crisis passes, how long that takes is anyone's guess. We will plan a new calendar when dates are available and are planning on doubling up on some months depending on the teacher's schedule. Keep reading the newsletter for updates.

Seminar is still on so far, so if you want to sign up, send your money to Debi to secure your spot.

So, what can you do during this time? How about painting a donation for seminar, or the Christmas party? Check out your favorite artist, many are posting lessons on-line, check out Ericka Joanne for a fun project.

The most important thing to do is stay HOME and safe. I have gotten so many projects going now I will need a vacation when this is over.

Linda

Seminar News:

The projects have been selected, a small Red and White Os-styled Trunk and a Fall-themed Pitcher for the Rosemary West seminar in August, the cost is $50 each day. You may of course use any surface for either of these projects.

MYSTERY PAINT-IN 2020

Following the latest public health guidelines, our fabulous Mystery Paint-In event has been on HOLD and our painting venue at San Marcos Mobile Estates is closed. We have a tentative reschedule date of Sunday, July 12th. Please understand that rescheduling is very “fluid” right now and is contingent on health advisories, teacher availability, and when our venue will reopen. We thank you for your patience and will keep you informed of updates as we have them.

Meanwhile, the MPI committee wants to share the following important details with you:

Meet Penny.

She likes to chew on ribbons, cellophane wrap, and MPI decorations.

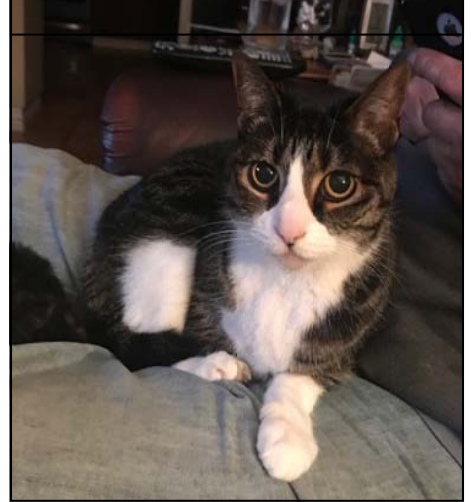

This is Marty.

He is on daily duty protecting MPI boxes and stored materials from Penny at Charlotte’s house.

Meet Sashimi.

She also likes to chew on ribbons, tulle, and MPI raffle items.

Here are Izzy and Poppy.

They are on daily duty protecting MPI boxes and raffle items from Sashimi at Ramona’s house.

Meet Rags.

She is on security patrol for MPI at Susan’s house.

Marty, Izzy, and Poppy want you to know that they are working hard to keep our MPI materials safe from kitties, except for Rags who is on her own patrol. 😊

Members Keeping Busy!

In lieu of Paint-in Photos, members have submitted photos of how they are staying busy during the Coronavirus "Shelter-in-Place"..

Lin Henderson has just finished the last coat of varnish on a magnificent Jo Sonja project— "O'Hare's Garden". She really enjoyed this labor of love just in time for Easter. She wrote a dedication to first responders and medical workers on the bottom.

Susan Schoepner has finished a beautiful oval box adaptation of Linda's Sharp's recent class in Las Vegas, which was a tray. Linda Sharp was so impressed by the box that she asked to put the photo on her website. Kudos to Susan!

From Lorean Weng:

My family is doing fine and staying at home. The attached Orchid painting is one I painted last Saturday. I'm toying with the idea of starting up a zoom class but we'll see. I'm working full time at home and this week is week 2 of working at home. Be well...

From Cynthia Megill:

This is a piece that was started by our own Sue Bond years ago. I finished up the top for donation to the raffle at some point. I'm happy with the results.

Now working on the pieces I missed at the CRA convention last October. Keep painting!!

From Kenna Perrin:

So glad I got to convention. Gnomes are Jamie Mills-Price packets and the oil place is start of a Cheri Rol packet. Painting is keeping me home and sane.

From Carolyn Miller:

We've been busy doing school work, art projects, online drawing lessons, cooking, playing outside and FaceTiming friends!

Ramona Jacobs reports she is working on these 3 "T" pieces, a Tote, a Tray, and a Table.

Charlotte Hicks has been working on her piece from Debbie Cotton's class in Las Vegas.

From Arla Lucas:

Sending you a picture of three of the boxes out of eight I have done since sheltering. Thank goodness for our art it keeps me grounded. Hope all is well with you. My very best to everyone

From Onya Tolmasoff:

On my table - definitely getting a head start on my annual customer's ornaments. Only 200 more to go. (Cute little Clips with Santa Faces)

Renee Molloy has finished these two projects — so far (and this was last week!)

Debi Stivers has finished her Bobbie T. piece.

Charlene Butler reports:

I'm just frustrated trying to keep a small business alive during all this and not get sick. No painting or gardening time, just worry time. (Hang in there, Charlene! We're rooting for you!)

From Janet Johnson:

I'm in Alabama and will be here until April 11. I've been here or will have been here for six weeks with my son and family.

Shirley McDonald has been finishing Vegas projects (Bella & Theodore, Laurie Speltz's Gnome, Cindy Moser's Owl Eyes on a glasses case) and Jamie's cute Flower Power cutouts...

From Leslie Pilcher:

I got on the bandwagon making masks for healthcare workers. And I'm taking a bunch of online classes. Took a break on St. Patrick's Day for a quick painting project.

From Jeanne Robert

I've been busy blanket joining for charity. The painted piece was with the fabulous Karen Brouwer at our annual Julian retreat early March

From Merle Avery:

Alden and I are cocooning fine. The dining room is closed but the wait staff kids bring us 3 meals a day.

Since we finished working on Mystery Paint In about the time the world shut down I am working on making cards for my Over 90 birthday people for church. And got out the rainbow bargello quilt that I started a month ago. Doing it in sections so I can quilt it on my machine and am now at the point of putting the sections together. The backing is the red minky fabric--the soft, silky fabric with which I have backed several baby quilts. Then I HAVE to finish the wedding gift for our Grand kids so I can enter it in the Del Mar Fair and then send to them for their first wedding anniversary.

Other than that it's going down to the Big House to get the daily mail, puttering doing non essential things and taking all day to do nothing. I hope all is well with all of you and are staying creatively safe.

From Carol Voyles:

Finished not one but three Linda Sharp pieces from the Las Vegas convention. To keep busy at home, trying to see how many TP rolls I can balance on her pieces.

First pic (left) is a Work-in progress. Gourd taught by Donna Carpenter. 2nd pic is from class taught by Jamie Mills Price.

From Karen Ortman:

This one (left) is a work in progress. I thought I was done. But after a day, I saw issues. Back to the paint table. This is the terrible set up (right photo)!! Had to have something..... [Oh, Karen, it's gorgeous!!]

From Sandy Lonnecker:

Such a good idea and I just finished this project today. A friend asked if I could paint butterflies for an anniversary gift for his wife. She is into butterflies and every year he tries to find something with butterflies on it where the number of butterflies equals the anniversary year. This year is the 21st and he was having a hard time finding something with 21 butterflies. He came up with a 2 inch thick cross-section of a maple beryl and he will make it be a table top for a small table. Attached are 4 photos, one of the whole table top and 3 close-ups.

From Dawn Reinhardt:

Hello all,
I'm finally reading my Oprah magazines, painting from the internet, cleaning out my emails, watching my fingernails grow!....Dawn

Linda Silvasy is working on her colored pencil otter and a tray for seminar.

From Marilyn Winder:

I just finished my Maxine Thomas summer panel for my calendar! I made a few changes but I do love her stuff! Stay healthy!

From Linda Camp:

Hello from Ramona! Wish I could say I've been happily finishing up my "UFO's" these past couple weeks, and send beautiful pictures of all my accomplishments --- but noooooo, that's not been the case. :(I realized I am having a lot of problems staying "focused" these days, and do better being a little more physically active. But my husband Dan & myself are hanging in there, and have been doing some gardening and a LOT of pulling weeds these past few weeks, in between those rain showers!! With the majority of my family back in Pennsylvania, and my 90-year-old Mom dealing with some very serious health issues, each day is filled with a lot of phone calls to check in on everyone. It's amazing how much time can be spent on the phone in one day, yikes. And last but not least, our 2 fur-babies, "Cookie & Kona" are enjoying the fact we are both home so much these days!! (Kona is the Sheltie, and Cookie is the brown pooch!) Anyway, hope it won't be too long before we are all enjoying a fun paint-in again, and holding some exciting raffles, too --- I HAVE been doing a little online shopping for raffle prize goodies, so that is still something for which I am planning! Now if I could JUST start the painting, too.... So bye for now, and sending "stay well" wishes to all of the PHP gang & their loved ones! Love & hugs to all!!! ---- Linda Camp :)

Here cometh April again, and as far as I can see the world hath more fools in it than ever said Charles Lamb. an English essayist, poet, and antiquarian, best known for his Essays of Elia and for the children's book Tales from Shakespeare. Why are people so tired on April 1st? Because they just finished a 31-day March. It certainly feels like this March has been the longest month in a very long time. But April is a promise that May is bound to keep. We can only hope as we recover from a history making coronavirus pandemic.

April Fool's Day falls on a Wednesday this year. Good Friday is April 10 and Easter is April 12. April 22 is Earth Day. Not a lot of silly holidays in April but there are some historical moments in the month of April:

- America's first astronauts were announced by NASA on April 9, 1959.
- The first Webster Dictionary was copyrighted by Noah Webster on April 14, 1828.
- The Titanic sank on April 15, 1912.
- The Revolutionary War in America began on April 19, 1775.
- The United States Library of Congress was established April 24, 1800.
- Our first President George Washington was inaugurated on April 30, 1789.

Mary Weflen shares her April 7 birthday with Jackie Chan, Russell Crowe, Francis Ford Coppola and James Garner.

Anita Lane shares her April 12 birthday with Claire Danes, Tom Clancy and David Letterman.

Karen Ortman shares her April 17 birthday with Victoria Beckham, Jennifer Garner and Redman the rapper.

Rama Shotwell shares her April 27 birthday with Ulysses S. Grant and Coretta Scott King.

Debi Stivers shares her April 28 birthday with Penelope Cruz, Jay Leno, Ferruccio Lamborghini and Drew and Jonathan Scott of the tv show Property Brothers.

Jean Cooke shares her April 29 birthday with Uma Thurman, Michelle Pfeiffer (62 years old this year!) Willie Nelson who will be 87 years old, and Duke Ellington.

As we get another year older in 2020, we may find our bodies not cooperating like we wish. When I go to the doctor they always ask, "have you fallen in the past year? How many times?" Falling is a big risk for us "seniors". So we end up with bruises and maybe stitches or even have to have surgery to repair broken bones. If you know someone in the chapter who is in need of some cheering up, either from falling or an illness, please call me (858-576-7163 – leave a message but no texts to this landline) or send me an email (irtb88@yahoo.com) and I will send them a card on behalf of chapter — Jeanne Robert Treasurer's Report: Susan Schoeppner reported that we have $15,253.00 in our Treasury. A discussion on Profit and Loss ensued.

2020 Mystery Paint In Committee chairman, Ramona Jacobs reported that due to the Corona virus they had to cancel the event. Pita King let them cancel the food at no charge. They may reschedule in June or July and work with teacher on availability. There is the possibility that we might have to have 2 events in one month.

2020 Christmas Party chairman, Linda Eastom reported the deposit and contract has been given to Ciao Restaurant. The table decorators have picked out their themes, Renee Molloy and Kenna Perrin are working on the name tags and programs.

2021 Mystery Paint In chairman, Susan Schoeppner said they are in good shape. She wants a committee of 5. There will be 45 in class. They are working on getting a Big Brush to teach, they have a general idea of the menu and will be collecting raffle prizes.

Programs – Debi Stivers and Linda Silvasy reported they have 34 signed up for the “Scardy Cat” class and 8 are guests. 2 kits still available.

Marketplace – Members can bring free items to give away anytime. Items you want to bring and sell and collect the money yourself will be posted in April Newsletter.

Interfaith Donations – Susan discussed the terrific reception from the Interfaith team about our cleaning supply donations and how thankful they were. Tips from Las Vegas Convention Teachers:

From Linda Sharp: To paint a straight line border, place a piece of blue tape or scotch tape along one edge of your line. Then paint the line evenly against the tape. The tiny thickness of the tape will keep your brush from wobbling.

From Jamie Mills-Price: When you are floating, control your brush moisture with the heel of the brush (water end). Put a small water puddle on your palette. When your brush is dry, dip the heel of the brush into the puddle and blend on palette. If the brush has too much water in it, pinch the heel of the brush to remove the excess.
